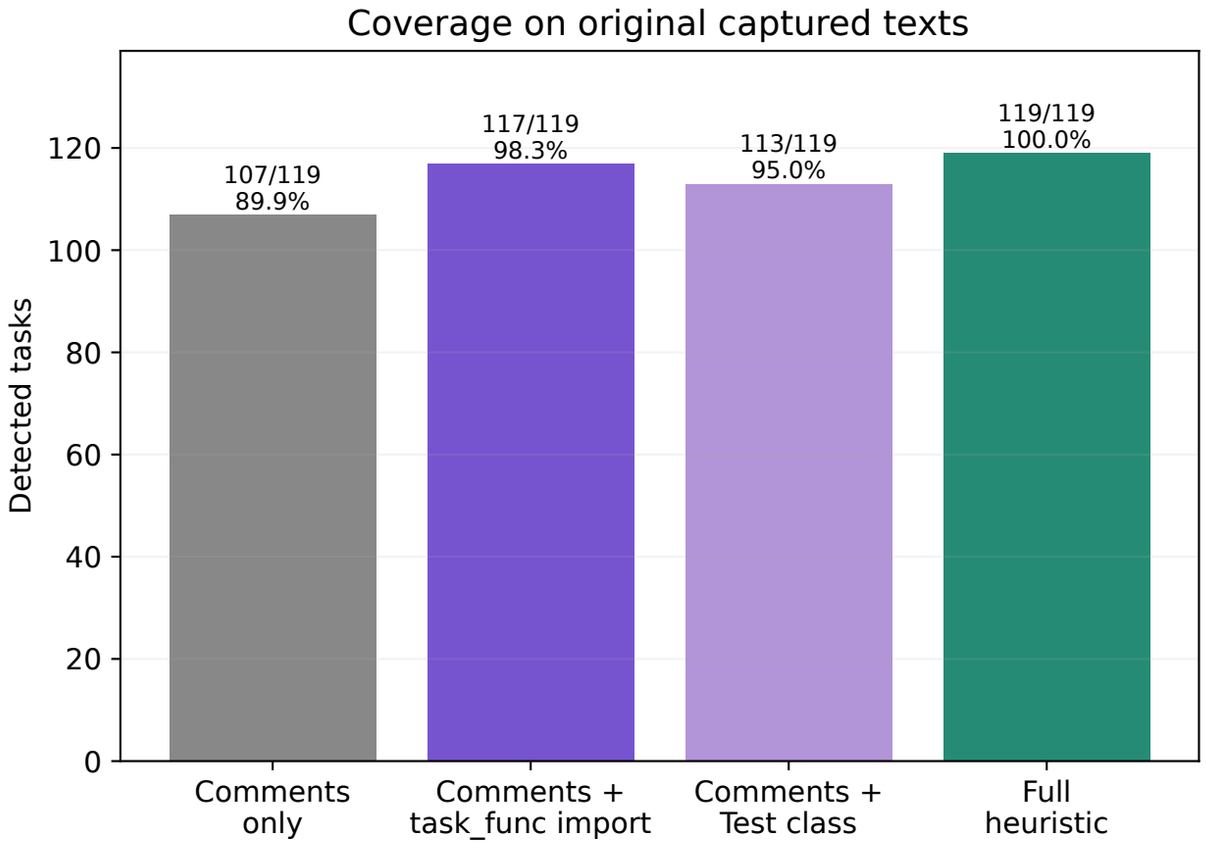
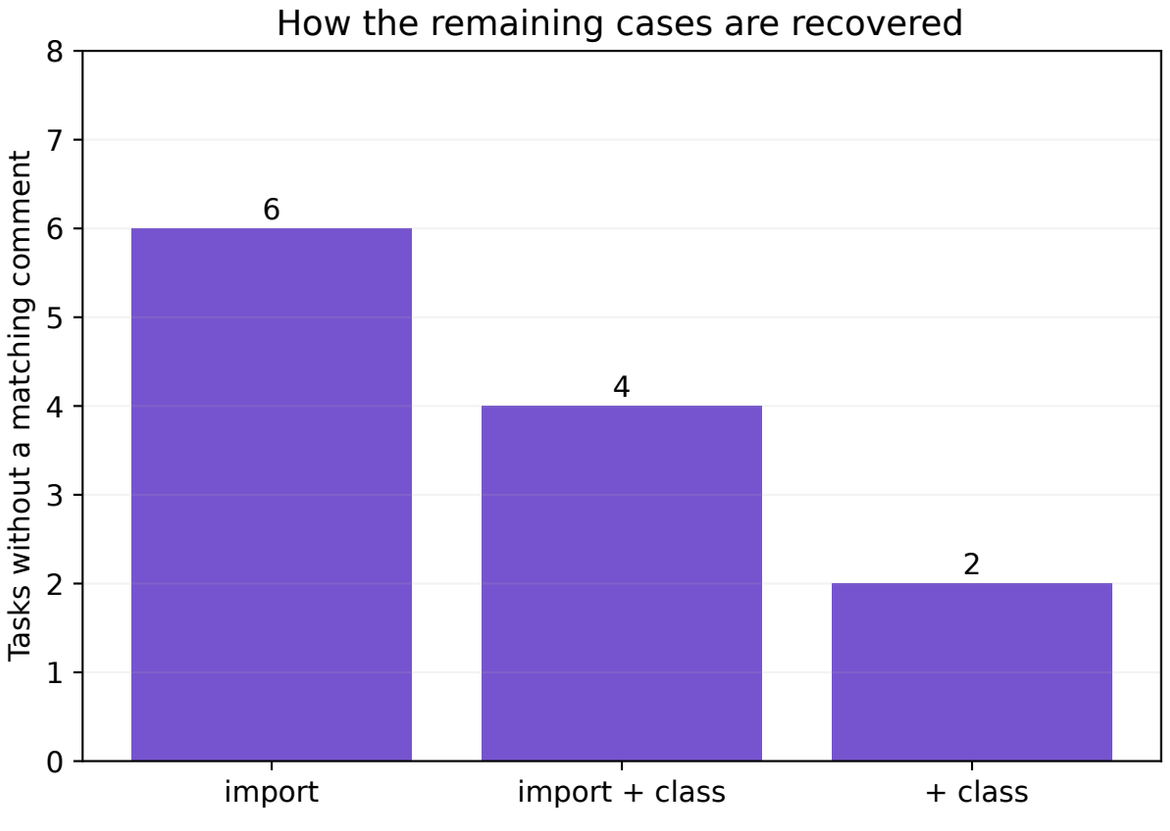
Does the comment detector do most of the work?





119 preselected contamination improvements. This is a coverage ablation, NOT validation of false positives or specificity.
Import/class components can both recover missing comments and precede a later comment. Task-level audit and current-alpha-zero sensitivity retained.